

Islamic Center Of Frisco

Office of the Imam

To whom it may concern,

The Muslim community of the City of Frisco and adjoining areas will be celebrating the Islamic holiday of Eid al-Fitr on April 21, 2023.

Eid al-Fitr is celebrated annually by Muslims worldwide to mark the end of the of Ramadan. Eid al-Fitr is one of the two important religious holidays celebrated by Muslims worldwide. As Eid-al-Fitr is a very important religious holiday for Muslims, we request you to excuse the respective Muslim employee from work on that day and not count the absence as an unexcused absence.

We thank you for your consideration and understanding in this matter. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact the parents or the Islamic Center of Frisco directly at imam@friscomasjid.org.

Sincerely,

Salah Mahmoud

Imam, Islamic Center of Frisco
