ARTICLE 2

2. Purpose and Objectives

- 2.1. ICF has been formed exclusively for religious, charitable, social and educational purposes. All of its activities shall be in accordance with the Qur'an and Sunnah (traditions) of Prophet Mohammed (pbuh) also documented in the authentic books of Hadith and fiqh. ICF shall strive to strengthen and reinforce the faith of all Muslims in the Oneness of Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala and the final messengership of prophet Mohammad (pbuh), the Holy Qur'an, and the Sunnah of the last Prophet, Mohammad (pbuh).
- 2.2. ICF shall be a non-profit organization which shall qualify as a tax-exempt entity under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code.
- 2.3. ICF shall conduct religious and social activities aimed at preserving Islamic values and traditions and shall strive to provide an environment for Muslims that shall strengthen their Islamic beliefs and encourage them to engage in Islamic activities.
- 2.4. ICF shall promote Islamic education by establishing and maintaining masajid, libraries, Islamic centers, schools, and institutions of higher learning. ICF shall also establish cemeteries, funeral facilities, community centers, child care centers and health centers and chapters pursuing similar objectives in adjacent communities.
- 2.5. ICF shall strive to promote good relations and understanding between Muslims and Non-Muslims and shall strive to propagate Islam and shall actively engage in Islamic Daw'ah work.
- 2.6. ICF shall work with other Islamic communities and organizations pursuing similar objectives and shall foster coordination, communication and cooperation among such organizations.
- 2.7. ICF shall collect and distribute Zakat (Al Mal and Al Fitr), Sadaqah and other donations in accordance with the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- 2.8. ICF shall respect the laws of the land and promote good American citizenship among its community members.

ARTICLE 3

3. Organization

- 3.1. ICF shall be governed by the following two branches:
 - 3.1.1. Al Majlis Al Aam (General Body): The Al Majlis Al Aam (also referred to as "Majlis") shall consist of all registered members of ICF in accordance with Article 5. The Majlis is the final authority of ICF and its decisions are final, as long as they are in accordance with the Qur'an and Sunnah.
 - 3.1.2. The Shura (Board of Directors) shall be composed of nine (9) elected members including the President (Ameer), who shall be responsible for all affairs of ICF.

The Shura may appoint committees and subcommittees in order to accomplish the goals and objectives of ICF in accordance with Article 2.

ARTICLE 4

4. General Rules

- 4.1. The following general rules are applicable to both branches of ICF. They also apply to all committees, subcommittees, members, non-members, guests, employees, and contractors of ICF.
- 4.2. The Shura may accept on behalf of ICF any property, whether real and/or personal, by way of gift, bequest from any person, firm, trust, or corporation; such property is to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of this document. However, no gift or bequest of any such property shall be received or accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such a manner as to require the disposition of the income or property for any purpose other than the purposes set forth in Article 2 above, or in violation of any local, state and federal laws.
- 4.3. No person may be elected to the same office for more than two (2) consecutive terms.
- 4.4. ICF shall carry liability insurance. Shura members are not individually or collectively liable for the actions of the Shura.
- 4.5. Shura members shall not receive salaries, remuneration, compensation, or wages for their services to ICF. To avoid any conflict of interest, Shura members shall not do business with or participate in any competitive bidding to render any paid services to ICF.
- 4.6. All original legal documents of ICF shall be kept in a safe deposit box. The President and his designee shall have access to this box at all times. Copies of such documents shall be kept on the premises of the principal office of ICF. Such documents shall be available to the registered members for general viewing within a week of written request. The Shura may restrict disclosure of certain personal information.
- 4.7. ICF's official language of communication shall be English.
- 4.8. The relationship between ICF and other organizations pursuing similar objectives as specified in Article 2 shall be governed by a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). Such an MOU shall be signed by the authorized representatives of both organizations and implemented thereafter. The purpose of an MOU is to allow the members of each organization to enjoy the benefits of the other organization without becoming a member of that organization. However, such benefits shall not include voting rights.
- 4.9. All members shall observe the Islamic code of conduct and ethics in all proceedings, meetings and activities of ICF.
- 4.10. The venue for any legal action against ICF shall be in the proper courts of Collin or Denton County, Texas, to the exclusion of all other courts in any other venues.

- 4.11. For the purpose of Eid-UI-Fitr, Eid-ul-Adha and the declaration of Ramadan and to keep the unity of Muslims in the DFW metroplex, ICF shall take into consideration the decision of the Fiqh Council of North America (FCNA). ICF may also coordinate with other Islamic Associations of the DFW metroplex and declare Eid and Ramadan keeping in view the FCNA and the majority decision of Islamic associations in the DFW metroplex. In case of FCNA's non-existence, any such equivalent organization as agreed upon by Shura and areas Islamic Associations will be followed for such decisions.
- 4.12. Shura may appoint a constitution committee to interpret the articles, sections and clauses of this constitution to further clarify the purpose and intent and may recommend necessary amendments required as the situation demands. It is strongly recommended that at least one member of the original Constitution Committee, if available, be involved in this committee because of prior knowledge and the purpose and intent of any clause.
- 4.13. Arbitration Procedure: In any dispute between persons concerning activities of ICF, all parties involved shall cooperate in good faith to resolve the dispute. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute between themselves, ICF members can bring the concern or complaint in writing to the Shura. Shura shall acknowledge such complaint, in writing, within 15 days and try to resolve the dispute. The Shura may advise the President to form a Grievance Committee, formed and headed by the President. The committee will consist of three members of Shura. This committee will try to conduct a reasonable investigation of the issue in 15 days and then will present their findings to the Shura in next scheduled meeting. The Shura will then take a final decision in this matter.

ARTICLE 5
